The 2010 ISOCARP Awards

for Excellence will stimulate and promote innovative spatial plans and projects successfully elaborated or implemented by planning authorities, private companies or other institutions – thus improving natural and built environment, quality of life and cultural development.

This year ISOCARP will give special emphasis to projects recognising the importance and significance of spatial, environmental and cultural planning that best express the theme of the 46th ISOCARP World Congress on “Sustainable Cities/ Developing World”.

Considering an interdisciplinary, integrated approach of the submitted projects by incorporating academia, governance and planning practice the jury may establish categories of awards based on the different planning levels: district planning/ urban design, urban/ city planning, and strategic/ regional planning.

The jury of the 2010 ISOCARP Award for Excellence consists of independent qualified planning practitioners and academics:

- ▶ Dirk Engelke, ISOCARP Vice President Communication, pakora.net, Germany
- ▶ Ismael Fernandez Mejia, ISOCARP President, IFM International, Mexico
- ▶ Thomas Kiwitt, Technical Director Greater Stuttgart Region, Germany
- ▶ Mairura Omwenga, ISOCARP Liaison Office Nairobi, University of Nairobi, Kenya
- ▶ David Proserpi, Florida Atlantic University, United States of America
- ▶ Shi Nan, Urban Planning Society of China, People's Republic of China
- ▶ Pablo Vaggione, ISOCARP Secretary General, Design Convergence, Spain
- ▶ Alfonso Vegara, Fundacion Metropoli, Spain
